

NATION'S BIG MEN SEE FIRST GAME

Wilson and Marshall in Throng at Opening of Base Ball Season.

PRESIDENT SHOWS
HE IS GENUINE FAN

Enters Heartily Into Spirit of Occasion—Many Other Prominent People in Crowds.

President Wilson autographs the first ball.

President Wilson, Vice President Marshall, members of the President's official family, judges, senators, representatives, members of the diplomatic corps and a miscellaneous assortment of ordinary American citizens crowded into the base ball park yesterday afternoon to watch the contest between Griffith's aspiring Nationals and Frank Chance's rejuvenated Yankees, which resulted in a victory for the former. The turnout of the faithful attendance, as given out after the game, showed that 15,841 persons had packed themselves within the enclosure, there to shiver, and yell, and applaud, and otherwise conduct themselves at the opening game of the season of 1913.

It was shortly before 3 o'clock when the President's party appeared at the park. With the President was his daughter, Miss Eleanor Wilson; the President's naval aid, Dr. Grayson, and Secretary Tumulty. The party was met by President Minor and other officials of the club and conducted to a box directly back of the Nationals' bench. Vice President Marshall also was welcomed by President Minor and club officials and conducted to a box close to that occupied by the President.

Cheered by Crowds.

As President Wilson's party entered the grandstand the band played "The Star Spangled Banner" and the great throng that filled almost every inch of available space cheered the nation's chief executive, who smilingly bowed his acknowledgment of the spontaneous tribute. But the cheers that greeted the appearance of the President were as nothing to those that had been given to the members of the Washington team, individually and collectively, when they appeared for preliminary practice. Chance and his warriors also received a salvo of applause.

Hundreds of women helped to make up the record-breaking crowd, and the brilliant suits of their costumes and hats made vivid splashes of color against the somber background of masculine raiment.

A few minutes before 3 o'clock Manager Griffith walked to the President's box and handed him a brand new ball, which a few minutes later, was tossed by President Wilson to Walter Johnson, the Nationals' premier pitcher. Half a dozen newspaper camera men snapped President Wilson in the act of throwing the

"Pape's Diapiesin" settles sour, upset stomachs in five minutes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, get this down: Pape's Diapiesin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was so anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference made badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapiesin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder. —Advertisement.

first ball of the 1913 season, and the picture was also caught by three motion picture men, whose machines were lined up in front of the box. The President joined heartily into the spirit of the occasion.

FUNERAL PARTY IN BOATS.

Body Lowered From Second-Story Window of Flooded House.

COLUMBUS, Ky., April 11.—A funeral procession of skiffs passed through the streets of this town Wednesday behind a boat bearing the body of the Rev. George R. Flowers. The home of the Rev. Mr. Flowers, who died this morning, is in the section of the city still under several feet of water, as the result of the recent flood, and the body was lowered from the second story into a boat. The procession then moved to the home of a friend of the deceased on a hill in the higher section of the town, where the funeral services were held.

Queer Eskimo Customs.

From the Wide World Magazine. Every ten years the Eskimos hold the dance to the dead, when ghosts are supposed to come out of their coffins and visit the Kos-ga, where they are given a feast, and retire well filled for another ten years. Sometimes the food is taken to the burying ground to save the spirits the trouble of moving.

When a child is born among the islanders it takes the name of the last deceased member of the family, and on it devolves the duty of its foster-father's spirit. The Eskimos have a horror of being childless, because their spirits will languish and their names be forgotten. As they say "S'pose no mlk-a-nina (children)—ghost plenty hungry." Often an Eskimo will beggar himself giving a great feast in honor of his illustrious ancestor; but he gains great renown thereby, and places all his visitors under the life-long obligations to him.

Progressives Plan Bills.

House progressives today went over plans for legislation. The legislative committee, headed by Representative Berryman, was instructed to begin work on tentative drafts of various measures, including one to provide for an easier method of amending the federal Constitution.

The second annual convention of the Sunday schools of Clearspring district was held Thursday in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Clearspring, Md.
